

Central Scotland Gundog Club

CONSTITUTION AND RULES 2023

1 NAME

The name of 'The Club' is the Central Scotland Gundog Club.

2 AIMS

The Club's primary aims are to encourage and promote new members to participate in the sport of working gundogs for field trials and working tests under the Rules and Regulations of The Kennel Club

3 OFFICERS AND COMMITTEE

3.1 OFFICERS

Officers of the Club shall consist of a Chairman, Honorary Secretary and Honorary Treasurer. The Officers and the Committee may elect to appoint a Vice-Chairman. The purpose of the Officers is to set the policy of the Club.

3.2 CHAIRMAN

The role of the Chairman is to lead the Committee in delivering the aims of the Club. The Chairman has the right to cast a deciding vote in the event of a tie when a vote is taken at any meeting of the Club.

3.3 COMMITTEE

The management of the Club shall be in the hands of the Officers and a Committee of at least four members and no more than fifteen. This is known collectively as 'the Committee'. The role of the Committee is to support the Chairman in delivering the aims of the Club and to perform the governance tasks necessary for the good running of the Club. All members of the Committee have full voting rights at Committee and General Meetings.

3.3.1 Committee Members

Committee Members including Officers shall each be elected for a three year period at an Annual General Meeting. One third of the Committee membership will retire each year. Retiring members will be eligible for immediate re-election which shall be by show of hands or secret ballot. Elections shall be carried by majority of those present and voting at the Meeting.

The Committee has the authority to co-opt interim Committee members during the year, for the remainder of that year. These co-opted will then will then be subject to the routine nomination procedure.

3.3.2 Elected Committee Member

Any member, other than an existing Committee member, wishing to be considered for election to the Committee at an Annual General Meeting must be proposed and seconded by another member and this proposal notified to the Honorary Secretary at least 21 Days before the Annual General Meeting.

Committee members should not be serving Officers of other gundog clubs.

3.3.3 Committee Member Requirement

No individual who has been a member for less than one year may be elected on to the Committee. No person whilst an undischarged bankrupt may serve on the Committee or hold any other office or appointment within a Kennel Club Registered Society.

CONSTITUTION AND RULES 2023

3.3.4 Committee Meetings

Meetings of the Committee will be held at least 4 times each year, or more often as required. Minutes of the Committee meeting will be circulated to serving officers and committee members. A quorum is formed of 5 members, one of whom is an Officer. If a vote taken at a Committee meeting results in a tied position, then the Chairman (or elected Chair for the meeting) shall have the casting vote.

4 MEMBERSHIP

An up to date list of members' names and their addresses must be maintained and if so requested, the list of names made available for inspection by the Kennel Club or members of the club. A declaration of the number of members must be made with Annual Returns.

4.1 Member Limit

'The Club' shall consist of an unlimited number of Members.

4.2 Member Types

There are two types of membership single and junior, up to the age of 17 inclusive.

4.3 Member Election

All applications for membership to 'The Club' shall be proposed by one fully paid-up Member and seconded by another (not husband and wife) and shall be elected or balloted for by the committee at its first meeting following receipt of the application – a majority vote deciding. The decision of the Committee not to admit any candidate shall be final and it shall not be bound to give any reason for its decision.

4.4 Privileges

Upon payment of the Joining Fee and Annual Subscription, the new member shall be supplied with a copy of these Rules. Payment of the subscription will entitle the member to enjoy every benefit and privilege of 'The Club' and such payment shall be their distinct acknowledgment of and their acquiescence to the rules of 'The Club'.

4.5 Voting Rights

Each member shall be entitled to one vote immediately on acceptance of membership. Voting shall be by secret ballot or show of hands as decided by majority at the meeting. Postal votes and proxy votes are not allowed. Junior members are not afforded voting rights.

4.6 Exclusion of Voting Rights

No Member shall be entitled to be present or take part in any proceedings or vote at any General Meeting whether on a show of hands or by ballot, or to nominate or be nominated as a candidate for election to the Committee, or if nominated to be elected, or if elected to take office as a Member of the Committee if and while they are:

- i. due to 'The Club' any subscription
- ii. due to 'The Club' any other debt which has remained due for a period of more than three months after the same became due and payable
